Subject: International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People and Urgent Call for Action

Dear International Partners,

As we commemorate the International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People, it is with a heavy heart and a sense of urgency that I address you on behalf of the resilient citizens of Ramallah. This occasion, established by the United Nations to reaffirm the global commitment to the rights of the Palestinian people, serves as a poignant reminder of the historical injustices and ongoing struggles faced by our community.

Regrettably, recent events have compelled us to emphasize the pressing need for solidarity now more than ever. The flagrant disregard for human lives during the recent Israeli aggression on the Gaza Strip has left an indelible mark on the collective conscience. The mass killings of more than 15000 people, 3000 disappearances, 35000 injuries, and 1.5 million displacements of innocent Palestinians 73% of which are women, children and infants have reached proportions where it became the greatest Catastrophe of the Palestinian People since the Nakba of 1948.

The failure of the international community to find a lasting solution for the Palestinian people reflects a broader failure in the United Nations' mandate. However, we, as Palestinians, resilient in the face of adversity, refuse to lose hope. On this day, we call upon you, our esteemed international partners, to recommit to the principles that world leaders have pledged in the past and advocate for the rights of the Palestinian people.

Our relationship, grounded in shared values, stands as a potent foundation for meaningful political dialogue and action. Together, let us harness our partnership to actively contribute to a world where the principles articulated in these resolutions transcend mere rhetoric, transforming into concrete, effective steps toward the liberation of the Palestinian people.

We look forward to your support and collaboration as we endeavor to make a tangible impact on the political landscape, guided by the resolutions that underscore the importance of justice and liberation for the Palestinian nation.

With sincere regards,

Issa Kassis
